The policy is next due for review in September 2017

The purpose of this exams policy is:

- to ensure the planning and management of exams is conducted efficiently and in the best interests of candidates.
- to ensure the operation of an efficient exams system with clear guidelines for all relevant staff.

It is the responsibility of everyone involved in the centre's exam processes to read, understand, and implement this policy.

The exams policy will be reviewed every September.

The exams policy will be reviewed by the Exams Officer, Senior Leadership team and Governors.

Where references are made to JCQ regulations/guidelines, further details can be found at www.jcq.org.uk.

Qualifications offered

The qualifications offered at this centre are decided by the Principal.

The types of qualifications offered are GCSE, GCE, FSMQ, Cambridge Technical, Cambridge National, ECDL and BTEC's.

The subjects offered for these qualifications in any academic year may be found in the centre's published prospectus or similar documents for that year. If there is to be a change of specification for the next year, the exams office must be informed by September 2015.

Informing the exams office of changes to a specification is the responsibility of the CTL of the department.

Decisions on whether a candidate should be entered for a particular subject will be taken by CTL of the department in consultation with the subject teacher.

Exam series

Internal exams (mock or trial exams) and assessments are scheduled in Summer 2016.

External exams and assessments are scheduled in Summer 2016.

Internal exams are not held under external exam conditions.

The Principal and Vice Principal of Achievement and Standards decides which exam series are used in the centre.

The centre does offer some assessments on an on-demand basis. If offered, on-demand assessments can be scheduled only in windows agreed between the CTL of the department and the Exams Officer.

Exam timetables

Once confirmed, the exams officer will circulate the exam timetables for internal exams at a specified date before each series begins.

Entries, entry details and late entries

Candidates or parents/carers cannot request a subject entry, change of level or withdrawal.

The centre accepts entries from private candidates.

The centre does not act as an exams centre for other organisations.

Entry deadlines are circulated to CTL's via email, noticeboard, briefing meetings, internal post/pigeon hole and the school intranet.

CTL's will provide estimated entry information to the exams officer to meet JCQ and awarding body deadlines.

Entries and amendments made after an awarding organisation's deadline (i.e. late) require the authorisation, in writing, of the relevant SLT member.

- GCSE re-sits/retakes are/are allowed.
- AS re-sits/retakes are/are allowed.
- A2 re-sits/retakes are/are allowed.
- Principal Learning re-sits/retakes are/are allowed.
- Functional skills re-sits/retakes are/are allowed.

Re-sit decisions will be made by CTL's in consultation with the relevant SLT member.

Exam fees

Candidates or departments will not be charged for changes of tier, withdrawals made by the proper procedures or alterations arising from administrative processes provided these are made within the time allowed by the awarding bodies.

The exams officer will publish the deadline for action well in advance for each exams series.

GCSE entry exam fees are paid by the school.

AS entry exam fees are paid by the school.

A2 entry exam fees are paid by the school.

Principal Learning entry exam fees are paid by the school.

Functional skills entry exam fees are paid by the school.

Late entry or amendment fees are paid by the candidate.

Fee reimbursements are not sought from candidates:

- If they fail to sit an exam
- If they do not meet the necessary coursework requirements without medical evidence or evidence of other mitigating circumstances

Re-sit fees are paid by the candidate.

Equality Legislation

All exam centre staff must ensure that they meet the requirements of any equality legislation.

The centre will comply with the legislation, including making reasonable adjustments to the service that they provide candidates in accordance with requirements defined by the legislation, awarding bodies, and JCQ. This is the responsibility of the Exams Officer and SENCo Secretary.

Access arrangements

The SENCo/SENCo Secretary will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs and any special arrangements that individual candidates will need during the course and in any assessments/exams.

A candidate's access arrangements requirement is determined by the SENCo.

Ensuring there is appropriate evidence for a candidate's access arrangement is the responsibility of the SENCo Secretary.

Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the SENCo Secretary.

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the SENCo Secretary.

Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates, as defined in the JCQ access arrangements regulations, will be organised by the Exams Officer.

Contingency planning

Contingency planning for exams administration is the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

Contingency plans are available via email, noticeboard, briefing meetings and internal post/pigeon hole and are in line with the guidance provided by Ofqual, JCQ and awarding organisations.

Private candidates

Managing private candidates is the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

Estimated grades

CTL's are responsible for submitting estimated grades to the exams officer when requested by the exams officer.

Managing invigilators

External staff will be used to invigilate examinations.

These invigilators will be used for internal exams.

Recruitment of invigilators is the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

Securing the necessary Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) clearance for new invigilators is the responsibility of the Principals PA.

CRB fees for securing such clearance are paid by the centre.

Invigilators rates of pay are set by the Principal.

Invigilators are recruited, timetabled, trained, and briefed by the Exams Officer.

Malpractice

The Principal in consultation with Exams Officer is responsible for investigating suspected malpractice.

Exam days

The Exams Officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery, and materials available for the invigilator.

Site management staff is responsible for setting up the allocated rooms, and will be advised of requirements a month in advance.

The Lead Invigilator will start and finish all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Subject staff may be present at the start of the exam to assist with identification of candidates. Any staff present must be in accordance with the rules defined by JCQ concerning who is allowed and what they can do.

In practical exams, subject teachers' availability will be in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. Papers will be distributed to CTL's in accordance with JCQ's recommendations and no later than 24 hours after candidates have completed it.

After an exam, the exams officer will arrange for the safe dispatch of completed examination scripts to awarding bodies.

Candidates

The Exams Officer will provide written information to candidates in advance of each exam series. A formal briefing session for candidates may be given by the Raising Standards Leader.

The centre's published rules on acceptable dress and behaviour apply at all times. Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the school accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

In an exam room candidates must not have access to items other than those clearly allowed in the instructions on the question paper, the stationery list, or the specification for that subject. This is particularly true of mobile phones and other electronic communication or storage devices with text or digital facilities. Any precluded items must not be taken into an exam room.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines. Candidates are expected to stay for the full exam time at the discretion of the Principal and Exams Officer.

Note: candidates who leave an exam room must be accompanied by an appropriate member of staff at all times.

The Exams Officer is responsible for handling late or absent candidates on exam day.

Clash candidates

The Exams Officer and School Support Manager will be responsible as necessary for supervising escorts, identifying a secure venue and arranging overnight stays.

Special consideration

Should a candidate be unable to attend an exam because of illness, suffer bereavement or other trauma, be ill or otherwise disadvantaged or disturbed during an exam, then it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the schools Exams Officer to that effect.

The candidate must support any special consideration claim with appropriate evidence within 2 days of the exam.

The exams officer will make a special consideration application to the relevant awarding body within 2 days of the exam.

Internal assessment

It is the duty of CTL's to ensure that all internal assessment is ready for dispatch at the correct time. The Exams Officer will assist by keeping a record of each dispatch, including the recipient details and the date and time sent.

Marks for all internally assessed work are provided to the Exams Office by the CTL. The Exams Officer will inform staff of the date when appeals against internal assessments must be made by. Any appeals will be dealt with in accordance with the centre's Internal Appeals Procedure (IAP) document.

Results

Candidates will receive individual result slips on results days,

- in person at the centre
- by post to their home address - candidates to provide self-addressed envelope
- collected and signed for.

The results slip will be in the form of a centre produced document.

Arrangements for the school to be open on results days are made by the Principal, Business Manager and Exams Officer.

The provision of the necessary staff on results days is the responsibility of the Principal.

Enquiries about Results (EAR)

EARs may be requested by centre staff or the candidate following the release of results. A request for a re-mark or clerical check requires the written consent of the candidate, a request for a re-moderation of internally assessed work may be submitted without the consent of the group of candidates.

The cost of EARs will be paid by the school or candidate, dependant on situation.

All decisions on whether to make an application for an EAR will be made by CTL's and SLT.

If a candidate's request for an EAR is not supported, the candidate may appeal and the school will respond by following the process in its Internal Appeals Procedure (IAP) document.

All processing of EARs will be the responsibility of the Exams Officer following the JCQ guidance.

Access to Scripts (ATS)

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of written exam papers within 20 days of the receipt of results.

School staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained.

Re-marks cannot be applied for once an original script has been returned.

The cost of EARs will be paid by the school or candidate dependant on situation.

Processing of requests for ATS will be the responsibility of Exams Officer.

Certificates

Candidates will receive their certificates

- in person at the centre
- collected and signed for

Certificates can be collected on behalf of a candidate by third parties, provided they have written authority from the candidate to do so, and bring suitable identification with them that confirms who they are.

The centre retains certificates for 2 years.

A new certificate will not be issued by an awarding organisation. A transcript of results may be issued if a candidate agrees to pay the costs incurred.
